Board members meet 4x a year: street representatives, certain chairs, executive
Next and last meeting of the year: Nov. 7, 7pm.

- I. Call to order by President Jim Capillo at 7:01 p.m.
- II. Request for agenda changes- none
- III. Approval of minutes No minutes from May 1 meeting at this time.
- IV. Neighborhood Watch (Karen Stivers): Police have provided a citizen guide and materials for neighbors. Membership for other neighborhood watch program was mailed in April and now difficulty in reaching the organization. Block captains can be phone tree directors for their street and help create a phone list. It was suggested to investigate the City of Lexington's EverBridge online notification system to residents by landline, text and e-mail. It was also suggested the committee investigate other local neighborhood watch groups by utilizing the city contact list. There will be a speaker from LFUCG Emergency Mgmt. at the general meeting in August.
Street Representatives (Bill Congleton): Feedback from street reps. regarding monthly newsletter deliver on the 1st of each month is the system is working. Jim Stone did request more newsletters for his street of Old Leestown Rd. because of the increase of new businesses on this strip.
- V. Neighborhood Matching Grant application: ideas of diseased tree removal, addition of street trees, community garden at the park, new stone entrance signage at Burke Rd. and North Forbes Rd., addition of street bumps to slow traffic
